

ASBSD School Board Award of Excellence

OVERVIEW

Associated School Boards of South Dakota is committed to recognizing the dedication and leadership of South Dakota School Boards. The School Board Award of Excellence will be given annually to a public school board which consistently demonstrates outstanding leadership that enhances the achievement for all students.

To earn the award, a school board must have demonstrated governance leadership in promoting excellence in public education.

ELIGIBILITY: All public school boards that are members of Associated School Boards of South Dakota in good standing are eligible. School boards may be nominated by a staff member, a community member or by the board.

SELECTION PROCESS: Screening and final judging will be done by a (5 to 7 member) panel of school board members, educators and business community members established by the ASBSD Board of Directors.

AWARD AND RECOGNITION: The board will be identified and recognized at their local district and at the ASBSD and SASD Convention. A plaque and a scholarship award of $1,000 will be presented to the recipient board. The $1,000 cash award may be used, at the discretion of the board, for board learning and development, a scholarship to a student of the board's choice, or any other purpose to promote the district's vision.

TO APPLY: An application form and information can be found on the ASBSD website. Applications for the 2014 school year must be postmarked or delivered electronically to the ASBSD office on or before June 19, 2014 to:
