

PUBLICATIONS

To keep board members and administrators throughout the state informed on matters of educational interest, the Association will research, create and disseminate information that supports association goals. ASBSD publications should leverage technology, to the fullest extent possible, to maximize effectiveness and efficiency in association communications. Publications shall be reviewed annually to make sure they are accomplishing intended purpose.

Official Publication

The ASBSD ~~Bulletin~~ online blog is the official publication of Associated School Boards of South Dakota. ~~There will be at least 12 monthly editions of the ASBSD Bulletin.~~

The ASBSD ~~Bulletin~~ online blog shall be provided as a membership service to all board members and administrators from member districts. ~~ASBSD shall accommodate requests to provide the ASBSD Bulletin to non-members and other interested parties. Non-members may be charged a subscription rate that allows the association to recover postage and production costs.~~
