

Bringing Board Training to You

“Not only was it great information to process while taking the course, but I also feel it will be a valuable resource to continue to look back on when needed.”

Yankton School Board Member Frani Kieffer on the ASBSD School Board U School Board Governance course

ASBSD School Board U is an online training site for school board members, which allows you to complete training at your own pace and from the comfort of your home.

School Board U offers seven course options:

- School Board Governance - reviews your role in public education and service
- Fiscal Responsibility - presents the basics on school district finances and funds
- Strategic Planning - identifies the key elements in developing a strategic plan
- New School Board Member Workshop - an introduction to being a board member
- Ethical School Board Service - outlines and underscores ethical board service
- Board President-Superintendent Relationship - covers aspects of the interaction between the board president and superintendent
- 2016 ASBSD Collective Bargaining Seminar - covers how districts must apply the new funding formula and teacher contract negotiations
