

The 2025-26 Election Workshop schedule includes four webinars – with two different times available for each webinar – covering aspects of elections and serves as an introduction to or refresher for those individuals conducting school board elections in 2026.

This year's webinar series does not require registration. To join a webinar, click on the link below for the corresponding event and time you wish to attend prior to its start time and enter the passcode, if asked. The webinars will be hosted on Microsoft Teams.

At this time, the Secretary of State's office has only provided links for the first two webinars.

Schedule, topic and webinar link information for each event is as follows:
